

Special Collections & Archives, Wright State University Libraries

Online Learning Resources

BINGO

Click on the hyperlink(s) in each square to explore the relevant online learning resource.

| | | | | |
|--|---|---|--|--|
| Browse the airplane photos in our Aircraft Gallery | Read a 1913 flood diary entry or letter | Get artistic with a women's history coloring sheet | View an image or video related to Apollo 11 or space exploration | Read a newspaper published by the Wright Brothers |
| Find a picture of a dog that belonged to a Wright Brother | Listen to an interview with a Holocaust survivor | Flip through the Wright family's photo album | Write a diary entry about your COVID-19 experience | Learn about how Wright State University has changed since its founding |
| Read a letter or diary from an Ohio Civil War soldier | Browse through an issue of the WSU Guardian from at least 20 years ago |  First Flight, 1903 FREE SPACE | View an item about student activism (Project STAND) | Watch an interview with a 1913 flood survivor |
| Learn what kind of "pets" Raoul Lufbery (WWI Ace) had | Watch an "In the Archives" video about our collections | Look at manumission records of freed slaves (and/or the index) | Read a poem by Dayton native Paul Laurence Dunbar | Explore primary sources documenting women's suffrage |
| Look at a letter, diary, or photo documenting World War I | Read an entry from the diary of Bishop Milton Wright (father of the Wright Brothers) | Browse a historical Wright State University course catalog | Look at the photo album of a Dayton family around 1900 & identify a leisure activity they enjoyed | Find Orville Wright's botany grade or look at his botany sketchbook |