Introduction

The Papers of Charles Colbert were found when records that were stored at the storage facility were transferred here during the 1994 Spring quarter. The collection's provenance is unknown.

The collection dates from 1966 to 1971. The entire collection amounts to one linear foot and fills two Hollinger boxes, containing 18 file folders. The collection is arranged into three series.

Series 1: Dayton-Miami Valley Consortium (D.M.V.C.)

Series 2: Wright State University (WSU)

Series 3: Miscellaneous

There are no restrictions on the use of this material.

Scope and Content

The Colbert Papers consist of business correspondence, maps and various booklets and published papers. The collection contains brochures, booklets, maps and correspondence dealing with the D.M.V.C. and personal consulting projects. The Colbert Papers provide insight and information about the early years of the D.M.V.C. and on a few projects that Charles Colbert worked on as a consultant.

Series I: Dayton-Miami Valley Consortium (D.M.V.C.), contains information concerning the formation of the D.M.V.C. and on projects that the D.M.V.C. started. This series also contains the D.M.V.C. newsletter, "Faculty Notes".

Series II: Wright State University (WSU), contains brochures, clippings and booklets which were of personal interest to Charles Colbert.

Series III: Miscellaneous, contains information on independent consulting projects, papers written by Charles Colbert and general correspondence.
