Biographical/Historical Note:

Carl Ultes, Jr. was born in 1881 in Chelsea, Michigan to Dr. Carl Ultes, Sr. and Berthea Werkheim. He had one brother, William. Ultes's father, Carl Sr., was born in the Rhineland section of Germany in July 1848. He attended college at the University of Heidelberg. In 1869 he relocated to the United States to attend the University of Michigan Medical School, where he graduated in 1873. He earned another medical degree from Bellevue Medical School in 1878. Carl Sr. practiced medicine in both Chelsea and Lansing, Michigan before moving his family to Springfield, Ohio in 1890.

Carl Ultes, Jr. graduated from Wittenberg University, where he was salutatorian of his class. On the day of his graduation, he met Louise Kelly, who would later become his wife. Ultes attended the University of Michigan Law School before returning to Springfield to join a law firm. After a short time, Ultes traveled west and landed in Portland, Oregon to practice law there. Ultes had kept in touch with Louise Kelly over the years and when she traveled to Spokane, Washington with a friend, Carl met them there. Soon after, he moved his law practice to Spokane and began a long distance relationship with Kelly. They married in Springfield, Ohio in December 1912. They lived in Spokane until 1919 when they returned to Ohio so that Carl could join his father-in-law's business, the O.S. Kelly Company. Carl initially started as a sales manager and slowly advanced within the company.

In his pastime, Carl collected stamps and played golf. He became president of the Springfield Country Club and directed the 1933 Ohio Amateur Golf Tournament held there. There are two interesting aspects to his involvement with the country club. When the club was destroyed by fire, Carl installed slot machines and rebuilt the club from the revenues. And when Carl played golf at the club, Ohio Governor James Rhodes was often his caddy. In later years, he spent more time on community affairs with the Rotary Club and the Community Fund. Ultes served on the Board of Directors of the National Piano Manufacturers Association. He was also an advisor for the Phi Kappa Psi fraternity at Wittenberg and was active in the Boy Scouts.

Carl Ultes, Jr. died July 26, 1973 at Mercy Medical Center, Springfield, Ohio. He was 92 years old.
