Arrangement: The collection is arranged in alphabetical order.

Biographical/Historical Note:
Sergeant Stanley Goodwin was a radio operator aboard Air Force One and collected items from the various trips that he made while in that position. The photographs of Air Force One are of the plane with the tail number 27000. This plane started in 1962 as the plane for President John F. Kennedy. The famous picture of the swearing in of Lyndon B. Johnson as President was taken aboard this plane. The plane also took President Kennedy to Berlin in 1963 and President Nixon to China in 1972. The last President it serviced was President Bill Clinton. This plane is currently at the National Museum of the United State Air Force.

Scope and Content
The collection consists of photographs of the Air Force One with the number 27000 which first started carrying President Kennedy in 1962, holiday greeting cards from the staff of Air Force One as well as a fact sheet about the plane. There are two programs, one from President Carter’s trip to Italy for an economic summit in 1980 and the other from President Nixon’s trip to the USSR in 1974. The memorabilia includes napkins, stationary and place cards with Air Force One emblem on them as well as maps from trips that were taken.
