

SC-110 Ivonette Wright Miller Memorial Photograph Collection

(3 Items)

This collection consists three 4x6 photos of a Henry Farman III biplane. As well, the Friends purchased a book.

Item List

1. Photograph of a Farman III flying at about 250 feet.
2. Photograph of a Farman III on the ground being serviced while an upper class crowd looks on.
3. Photograph of a somewhat blurred Farman III flying over the Sarsen stones at Stonehedge.

This three photographs were purchased in memoriam together with a monograph by aviator and engineer, Grover Loening as follows:

Loening, Grover. Takeoff Into Greatness: How American Aviation Grew So Big So Fast. New York: G.P. Putnam's Sons, 1968.

The book can be found in the Archives and Special Collections with the call number HD9711.U6. 1968 and is autographed by the author.

The friends of the Library purchased these items in memory of Ivonette Wright Miller, 1896-1995.
