

SC-111 Aeronautical Wire Service Photos and Papers, ca.1948

(27 items)

This collection includes a variety of black and white aviation photos and newspaper clippings. Some of the material relates to the return of the Wright Flyer to the United States Smithsonian from England's Science Museum.

Item List

1. Photograph of the Wright Flyer at the British Museum
2. Photograph of the Wright Flyer at the British Museum
3. Photograph of Wright Flyer being returned to U.S.
4. Photograph of the Wright Flyer at the British Museum
5. Photograph of a free flight powered model craft flown in 1956
6. Photograph of a 1916 model Curtis pusher plane
7. Photograph of a 1916 model Curtis pusher plane in the air
8. Photograph of Ted Boden and a one-seater biplane he built
9. Photograph of rows of planes at an air field for sale
10. Photograph of Bill Taylor in the air flying a low-wing M-18
11. Photograph of a plane flying over an unknown city
12. Photograph of Bill Bouck in the air on a Wee-Bee
13. Photograph of a glider in flight with bystander on the ground
14. Photograph of a glider on the ground with two people looking out the port hole windows
15. Photograph of a KL 107 the first plane produced in series by Germany since WWII
16. Photograph of the first Jet liner to cross the Atlantic Nonstop by a Comet III
17. Photograph of the Bristol Britannia, the World's largest Turbo-prop airliner
18. Photograph of a plane at the Shannon Airport in Ireland
19. Photograph of a plane in air after taking off from Cander Airport, Newfoundland
20. Photograph of a Vicker Valiant Jet Bomber with silencers attached to engines
21. Photograph of a Jet engine silencer in England
22. Photograph of a Russian Jet airliner coming in for a landing
23. Photograph of a diagram of a passenger airplane
24. Photograph of a mock-up plane being tested
25. Photograph of the Wright Flyer at the British Museum
26. Photograph of the Wright Flyer at the British Museum
27. Photocopy of newspaper articles about the Wright Estate, newspaper unknown