Scope and Contents

The collection contains a single ledger book detailing the Reliable Jack Company's business finances between 1934 and 1940. It details purchases and payments made, taxes paid, and business conducted during this period. Additionally, there are pages recording payroll expenditures, as well as the sale and repair of hydraulic jacks. The ledger also includes other companies that the Reliable Jack Company did business with, such as the Dayton Malleable Iron Co. The types of financial exchanges recorded appear in an alphabetical index written at the front of the volume.
