This collection contains seven aviation stereocards purchased from an auction from Cowan’s in 2011. In near-perfect condition, these cards depict aviation scenes, six pertaining to airships.

The captions of the cards read as follows:

1. (32763) As our photographer saw the Akron, the ARS-4 on July 29, just eleven days before it will be launched.

2. (32277) Graff Zeppelin inside of hanger at Lakehurst, New Jersey, Oct. 15, 1928. (Card contains full description on back.)

3. (32766) Mrs. Hoover christens the Akron, the largest airship in the world, at Akron, Ohio, Aug. 8, 1931. (Card contains full description on back.)

5. (32771) The maiden flight of the largest dirigible ever built, the U.S.S. Akron, Sept. 23, 1931. (Card contains full description on back.)

6. (8627) The Graf Zeppelin’s rendezvous with the Eternal Desert and the more than 4000 year old pyramids of Gizeh, Egypt.

7. (29360) Pres. Coolidge pinning the Langley Medal on Col. Lindbergh, the fifth person to receive it, Washington, D.C. [June 11, 1927]
