

SC-281      "High Acres" Landscape Plan

(1 Item)

High Acres was the Dayton home built for the President of the Rike-Kumler Department Store, Frederick Rike, and his wife Ethel in 1929. It was designed by Cleveland architects Meade and Hamilton and the grounds were designed by Dayton landscape architect Samuel D. Zehring. This collection consists of one oversize plan of the grounds. The plan is signed by Zehring. It is located in oversize storage.
