

SC-80 David Procuniar's American Civil War Diary, 1862-1863

(1 item)

David Procuniar was a member of the Ohio Volunteer Infantry, having served early in the American Civil War in both the 50th and 61st Ohio Volunteer Infantry Regiments. He fought at several major battles and died at camp in 1864.

Item List

1. Photocopy of his entire journal along with biographical data compiled by the family.

*Note: Please take note that while the collection is open for research the family holds the copyright to this material and permission may be needed to make large amounts of copies and reprinting.